1 Fayad brings this action to redress CSU's unlawful discrimination and seeks injunctive as well as
2 compensatory and general damages.

4 JURISDICTION

5 2. This action arises under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title 42, United States Code
6 §§2000e through 2000c 17, as amended in particular by § 2000e-2(a).

7 3. The matter in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum of 8 seventy-five thousand dollars.

10 VENUE

11 4. Venue is proper in the Northern District of California because a substantial part of 12 the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in this District.

13 5. Venue is proper in the Northern District of California because CSU employs 14 Fayad in the District.

16 PARTIES

17 6. At all times relevant hereto, plaintiff MOHAMED E. FAYAD was a professor in 18 the Department of Computer Engineering, College of Engineering, at San Jose State University
19 and a resident of the County of Santa Clara, State of California. Fayad is of Egyptian national 20 origin and is of the Muslim religion. Plaintiff Fayad is a bona-fide resident of the State of 21 California.

22 7. Defendant, Board of Trustees of California State University (CSU) was and is a
23 state public entity that owns and operates CSU, San Jose.

24

25 STATEMENT OF FACTS

26 8. Fayad has an outstanding record of scholarly work with a sound publication
27 record. He has published over one hundred articles and four books, of which three are translated 28 into Chinese.

1 9. Fayad received his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Cairo in
2 1972. He received his Masters in Computer Science from the University of Minnesota in June
3 1993. He received his Ph.D. at the University of Minnesota in June 1994.

4 10. From February 1988 to June 1989, Fayad worked as a Research Assistant in the
5 Computer Science Department at the University of Minnesota. From June 1989 to December
6 1992, Fayad worked as Principal, Specialist Engineering, at McDonnell Douglas Corporation in
7 St. Louis, Missouri. From January 1993 to July 1995 he worked as Vice President of Research
8 and New Business Development and Founder of Object Technologies in St. Louis, Missouri.
9 From August 1995 to August 1999, he was employed as an Associate Professor at the College of 10 Engineering at the University of Nevada, Reno, Nevada. From August 1999 to August 2002, he 11 was the J.D. Edwards Professor, and an Associate Professor in the Computer Science and 12 Engineering Department at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Nebraska.

13 11. Fayad joined the faculty at CSU in 2002 as a Professor in the Department of 14 Computer Engineering. Because he served as an Associate Professor at the University of 15 Nebraska for four years before coming to CSU, Fayad received two years of credit toward his 16 tenure review at CSU.

17 12. In 2003 Belle W. Y. Wei, the Dean of College of Engineering at CSU, wrote that 18 Fayad's outstanding scholarly work had enhanced the college's reputation. Fayad is a well-
19 known specialist in research for software development.

20 13. Fayad's promotion to tenure in 2004 was strongly supported by several professors
21 in his department.

22 14. Fayad clearly met CSU standards for a tenured position. Under normal
23 circumstances Fayad's scholarly work and teaching record at CSU would have virtually 24 guaranteed that he would be promoted to tenure.

25 15. On November 5, 2004, the Retention, Tenure and Promotion Committee at CSU
26 recommended that Fayad be denied promotion to tenure and that he be terminated.

27 16. As a result of the Committee's decision, the Provost at CSU denied Fayad's
28 promotion to tenure in May 2005.

17. CSU demoted Fayad to Lecturer rank in August 2006. CSU then appointed Fayad as a part-time professor for the period of August 2006 to present.

18. On information and belief, CSU's decisions to classify him as a part-time Lecturer rather than as a full-time, non-tenure track faculty member was based at least in part on his Egyptian national origin and Muslim religion.

19. On February 13, 2007, Fayad filed a charge of discrimination against CSU with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) and was issued a Case Closure and Right-to-Sue Notice on March 2, 2007.

20. On February 20, 2007, Fayad filed a charge of discrimination against CSU with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). On April 4, 2007, the EEOC issued FAYAD a Notice of Right-to-Sue.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF – DISCRIMINATION BASED ON NATIONAL ORIGIN

(42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a))

21. Fayad refers to and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-20 above as though fully set forth herein.

22. By virtue of the foregoing, CSU demoted Fayad to lecturer rank and to a part-time position based upon the unlawful consideration of his national origin in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF - DISCRIMINATION BASED ON RELIGION

(42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a))

23. Fayad refers to and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-22 above as though fully set forth herein.

24. By virtue of the foregoing, CSU demoted Fayad to lecturer rank and to a part-time position based upon the unlawful consideration of his religion in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.

the future;
- c. He has suffered from emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation;
